Letter from the Executive Director

The New Year equine activities are already in full swing in our region with shows, stock shows and agricultural association meetings happening everywhere. The Colorado Horse Council also has a quick start with the formation of committees, the recruitment of volunteers and the planning of many of its annual events. You can find the top of many of these projects online at www.ColoradoHorseCouncil.com

With all of these activities occurring after a very busy holiday season, many horse enthusiasts forget one of the most important parts of being a horse owner...

- It is your responsibility to have the liability coverage required to protect a horse owner. Your CHC Membership provides you with that insurance liability coverage.
- It is your responsibility to remain informed on the State Rules and health notices required in raising, transporting and showing your horse. Your membership provides you with that information using the latest communications technologies.
- You have a responsibility to be counted as a horse owner and to protect the rights as an owner. Your membership gives you that information and informs you of the call to action required to maintain those rights and privileges as a horse owner.
- You have a responsibility to your horse's welfare and your membership provides you with the awareness opportunities through networking and events to give you the knowledge required to provide your horse with the best practices in training, health and care.

These responsibilities are yours and yours alone. The cost per month is compared to the overall cost of horse ownership, $4.16 per month for you and $4.16 per month for your family. But the value to you and to our industry is huge. It can be the year you join the Council and be a responsible horse owner. The Rocky Mountain Horse Expo is just around the corner and the plans are underway. This is our 20th year and this year is shaping up to be one of our best ever. There are many things to become involved with at the Expo, just a few:

- The Mane Event
- The Ride with the Experts
- Attend a pre-Expo clinic
- Attend the 45 clinics per day for three days.
- Visit our trade show with over 250 vendors.
- Participate in the special events
- And much, much more.....

The Expo will be held March 8 - 11, 2012 at the National Western Stock Complex. Come join in the fun and excitement that the Expo offers and the opportunity to learn about you and your horse.

The Expo and the Colorado Horse Council are now on Face Book - join

The Rocky Mountain Horse Expo's Mane Event is accepting applications for participation. The registration form can be found on the Expo Website. Now is the time to show your abilities and the beauty of your horse under the spotlight at the Mane Event, held in the Event Center at the National Western Complex. This popular Expo event provides great entertainment and excitement during Friday and Saturday evening performances. These nightly spotlights feature riveting and exciting equine acts, featuring professional and local equine performers.

To become part of this performance, please fill out the Mane Event Application form and submit a sample of your performance by video or digital film. Each performance sample will be reviewed by a production group of judges who will determine a position in the performances. With limited performance time, each act will be judged based on entertainment value, interest, safety, and overall quality to determine their selection. There will be assistance offered to groups wanting to improve their performance. Here are some guidelines to remember:

- Acts must be performed within a 2.5 minute time frame
- Performers must attend the dress rehearsals.
- Each solo performer will be limited to one performance.
- Music and introductions are required in the Expo Office by March 5:00PM
- Performers are required to have the appropriate health certificates. Performers must follow the exhibitor's guidelines as directed by the Expo. A Horse Contract must be completed prior to entry.

We look forward to another spectacular show highlighting the talents of our performers and their riders! We look forward to you joining the over 100 horses and riders at the Mane Event.
